

Shepardson College and Its Heritage

A Story of Women's Quest for Higher Education in Granville, Ohio

By
THOMAS F. GALLANT
Professor Emeritus of Education
Denison University

Denison University
Granville, Ohio
1996

Table of Contents

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.....	ii
HIGHER EDUCATION IN GRANVILLE: A CHRONOLOGY.....	vi

PART I THE FORERUNNERS

Chapter

1. THE GRANVILLE FEMALE SEMINARY.....	2
Apathy for the Education of Females.....	2
Evidence of Enlightenment.....	3
Early Programs and Enrollments.....	4
A Futile Struggle.....	6
2. THE EPISCOPAL FEMALE SEMINARY.....	9
Episcopalians Take Charge.....	9
Curriculum and Enrollments.....	10
The Need to Re-Locate.....	14
3. THE YOUNG LADIES' INSTITUTE: BOOKS AND BRICKS.....	18
Early Beginnings.....	18
Curriculum.....	21
Facilities.....	23
4. THE YOUNG LADIES' INSTITUTE: LIVING AND LEARNING.....	29
Life at the Institute.....	29
Literary Societies.....	31
Mission Board.....	34
Faculty.....	36

PART II SHEPARDSON COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

5. ESTABLISHMENT.....	41
6. ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY.....	47
7. COLLEGE RESOURCES.....	53
Finances.....	53
Facilities.....	55
8. ACADEMIC PROGRAMS.....	63
Curriculum and Degrees.....	63
Preparatory Education.....	72

9. FOCUS ON STUDENTS.....78

College Costs.....78

Enrollments.....81

Organizations.....82

10. LITERARY SOCIETIES.....87

11. CAMPUS LIFE AND LATER.....94

Daily Life.....94

Alumnae.....100

12. INSTITUTIONAL RELATIONSHIPS WITH DENISON.....103

SOURCES.....110